

Philosophy 3

Based on the Book: The Program of St. Paul – Faith, Hope, (Knowledge), Love.

(See book Index)

1. Esoteric Movements in the Twentieth Century.
The Authentic Orthodox Esoteric Tradition has Surfaced Again.
The Work of Boris Mouravieff GNOSIS: Exoteric, Mesoteric and Esoteric Cycles.
2. The Crisis of the Christian Religion. Its Proper Understanding and its Eventual Solution.
The intricate Relation Between Philosophy and Religion.
The Law of Equilibrium between Form and Content. Its application to Resolve the Crisis.
3. St. Paul's Program as Elucidated in Gnosis.
An Overview of the "Way".
Definition of the Meaning of the Two Important Terms: Program and Formula.
The Evolution of Faith. The Creed and the Mysteries.
4. A Faith that has Become Knowledge.
The Dynamic Exposition of the Elements of the Doctrine.
Objections of Sincere Christians to the Apparent Paradoxes of the Adult Doctrine.
The Middle Ages and The Predominance of the Religious Mentality.
5. The Necessity for Religion to Develop.
Contemporary Man and the Myth of Salvation.
6. There Only Exist Four Ways to Comprehend Man's Exterior and Interior Worlds.
7. The Necessity of Confirming the Acquisition of Faith and Hope by Means of Knowledge.
Times for Mysteries to be Unveiled. Science and Philosophy in Past and Modern Eras.
8. Differentiating Between Believing and Having Faith.
The Essence of Faith.
The Letter Kills but the Spirit Vivifies.
9. Three Main Components of the Christian's Creed.
The General Resurrection. The Rise of Physical Bodies in Christianity.
10. The General Resurrection According to the Tradition. The Problem of Re-Incarnation.

11. The Proper understanding of Sin.

12. Adam's fall. The Myth of Adam and Eve: Disclosing its Deep Meaning and Actual Significance.